AAAI FALL SYMPOSIUM 2026

Planning for a Better Planet

Welcome! November 5–7 · The Westin Arlington · Fitzgerald Ballroom D

AAAI Symposium Series

WHY WE’RE HERE

A changing planet demands better plans.

Where to invest scarce adaptation resources, how to design fair carbon markets, how to keep plans workable when the future is uncertain. This symposium brings AI planning and reasoning researchers together with climate experts to work on those decisions.

THE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Who we are

Jim Boerkoel

Harvey Mudd College

Charles Dawson

Emerald AI

Jeremy Frank

NASA Ames
Research Center

Alice Lépissier

Green Finance AI

With thanks to our sponsor

HARVEY MUDD COLLEGE

Hixon Center for Climate and the Environment

THE PROGRAM

Three days, one arc

THURSDAY

Plans: deciding and delivering

- Welcome and planning overview
- Planning and Delivering Adaptation
- Energy and Computation
- Community Engagement and Partnering Across Fields

FRIDAY

What plans rest on

- Measuring a Changing Planet
- Goals and Governance
- Planning Tools for Climate Users
- Meeting the Moment: a facilitated session on connection and leadership

SATURDAY MORNING

What we do next

- Community Discussion: working conversations on the challenges you choose
- Closing and Next Steps

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5 · FITZGERALD BALLROOM D

Today

9:00–10:30

Welcome

Introductions · Planning overview: Stephen Wissow · Framing talk: Alice Lépissier

10:30 · Coffee break and posters

11:00–12:30

Planning and Delivering Adaptation

Invited talk: Luis E. Ortiz · Two accepted papers · Small-group discussion

12:30 · Lunch: join us at Quarter Market

2:00–3:30

Energy and Computation

Invited talk: Carla P. Gomes · Two accepted papers · Small-group discussion

3:30 · Coffee break and posters

4:00–5:15

Community Engagement and Partnering Across Fields

Dr. Sacoby Wilson · Sticky-note reflection and small groups

5:30 · AAAI reception, outside Ballroom C

PRACTICAL DETAILS

Good to know

Lunch, 12:30–2:00

- On your own; today, join us at Quarter Market
- Friday: joint lunch with Parsimonious SciML (tentative)

Breaks

- Coffee and snacks at 10:30 and 3:30
- Posters at today's breaks
- Breakfast on your own

Evenings

- Tonight, 5:30: AAAI reception, outside Ballroom C
- Friday, 5:30: AAAI plenary, Ballroom C

Need anything?

- Find any organizer
- Email info@plan4planet.org
- Places to eat: the website's Attending page

SCAN TO FOLLOW ALONG

Stay connected

Mailing list

Where we'll share what comes out of this week

Schedule

plan4planet.org: talks, papers, places to eat

Bluesky

@plan4planet.bsky.social

LinkedIn

linkedin.com/company/plan4planet

Posting about the symposium? Tag @plan4planet and use #plan4planet

SMALL-GROUP INTRODUCTIONS · 10 MINUTES

What’s one thing you bring to this room, and one thing you’re hoping to find here?

Turn to 2–3 people nearby, ideally people you don’t know yet. Name, where you’re from, and your answer.

ROUND-ROBIN · NEW GROUPS

Think of a collaboration across fields that worked well, or didn’t. What made the difference?

Find people you haven’t met yet. Keep your answer in mind: we’ll come back to it at 4:00.

THURSDAY 4:00 · HOLD THESE FOR LATER

Building our community

SUCCESS

How will we know that our Plan4Planet community is a success? What are the indicators?

RISK

What are the greatest risks to launching a Plan4Planet community?

Keep these in mind. We'll come back to them together later in this session.

GRAB SOME STICKY NOTES

Write, pair, four, share

SUCCESS

How will we know that our Plan4Planet community is a success? What are the indicators?

RISK

What are the greatest risks to launching a Plan4Planet community?

Alone

Private write

One idea per note, as many as you like

Twos

Pair

Read your notes to a partner; add new ones

Fours

Pairs join up

What do you share? Where do you differ?

Everyone

Full group

Each four offers one indicator and one risk

Keep every note, even duplicates, and leave them all by the door on your way out.